

STATE ELECTIONS.

Elections will be held in several States next Tuesday, but there are only four or five to which any great importance is attached. These are Iowa, Ohio, Massachusetts, Nebraska and New York. It seems strange that States such as Iowa, Ohio, Massachusetts and Nebraska, which a few years ago gave overwhelming Republican majorities, should this year be in the doubtful list, yet such is the fact. A great change has taken place in the political sentiment of the West, and Kansas, which gave Harrison over 82,000 majority for President three years ago, though not in the Democratic line, is out of the Republican column.

In Iowa the Democratic chances of success are at least equal to those of the Republicans. There are three tickets in the field, but the fight is between the Republicans and Democrats. The State, a few years ago, was as strongly Republican as Kansas, and to-day it is as doubtful as New York.

In Ohio, which has been a Republican State, much depends upon the vote of Cincinnati, where a ring, organized for plunder, and broken up by Governor Campbell, now seeks revenge by trying to defeat him. The issues are free coinage and a readjustment of tariff duties and as Wall street gold men and the manufacturers, who are being enriched by protection, are contributing liberally to the Republican campaign fund, and money is a potent factor in elections, McKinley will doubtless receive a majority in Ohio. His party cannot afford to lose the State, as it would virtually determine the Presidential election in advance.

In Nebraska there are three tickets in the field, each claiming a plurality. At present it looks as if the People's party would carry the State, though the Democrats had a plurality of a thousand or two a year ago.

In New York both parties are confident of success. There is dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks, and the present Lieutenant Governor, or of the State is fighting the head of the ticket on the ground that the election of Flower would probably make him the Democratic nominee for President and give Tammany too much prestige in the National Convention next Summer. The result next Tuesday will depend to a great extent upon the number of disaffected Democrats who will remain away from the polls or vote for Fassett.

In Massachusetts there is a probability of Russell, the Democratic nominee for Governor, being elected, but the rest of the ticket is conceded to the Republicans. Russell is an avowed opponent of free coinage and so is his Republican opponent, so the real friends of silver will not care much which is elected, and only regret that there is not a third candidate in the field on a free coinage platform who could beat both gold men.

All the States which elect State officers next Tuesday were carried by Harrison three years ago, so the defeat of the Republicans in any of them will be a loss to the party.

IMMIGRATION.

The following statistics, showing the number of immigrants arriving at the principal seaports in September, are given out by the Bureau of Immigration at Washington: Baltimore, 3,162; Boston and Charlestown, 3,582; New Orleans, 91; New York, 41,954; Philadelphia, 8,463; San Francisco, 454. Total, 52,706. For the month ending September 30, 1890: Baltimore, 2,273; Boston and Charlestown, 4,091; New Orleans, 74; New York, 35,970; Philadelphia, 2,574; San Francisco, 491. Total, 45,478. For the nine months ending September 30, 1891, the arrivals were: Baltimore, 36,588; New Orleans, 1,531; New York, 377,923; Philadelphia, 22,964; San Francisco, 3,905. Total, 469,270. For the nine months ending September 30, 1890: Baltimore, 22,152; Boston and Charlestown, 26,166; New Orleans, 1,838; New York, 308,450; Philadelphia, 18,951; San Francisco, 3,847. Total, 381,399.

The immigration from British North American possessions and Mexico are not included in the statistics of immigration, owing to the absence of a law providing for the collection of accurate data in regard thereto. The arrivals of immigrants at the customs districts above specified comprises about 90 per cent. of the entire immigration reported.

The Parnell and McCarthy political factions in Ireland are fighting each other. This is entirely satisfactory to the Tory Government, but regretted by Gladstone and the English advocates of home rule in Ireland.

A cyclone demolished several buildings, blew down telegraph poles, uprooted trees and played havoc generally at Conneaut, Ontario, Monday evening. The damage is estimated at $100,000. No lives were lost.

BY TELEGRAPH!

Harrison Reads the Riot Act to the Chilean Out-throats.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, October 27.—The telegram which was sent by the President's order to Minister Egan on the 23d inst., after reciting the facts of the assault on the Baltimore's sailors and the results of Captain Schley's investigation says: You will observe that the board of officers selected by Captain Schley to investigate this affair report that our sailors were unharmed and gave no provocation. The assaults upon them were by armed men, greatly superior in numbers, and, as we must conclude, animated in their bloody work by hostility to these men as sailors of the United States. You will also notice that the character of some of the wounds indicate that the public police, or some of them, took part in the attack, and you will also observe that other American sailors were, without apparent fault, arrested, and for some time held by the authorities. This took place on the 16th inst., and yet no expression of regret or of a purpose to make searching inquiry with a view of the institution of proper proceedings for the punishment of the guilty parties has been, so far as I am advised, offered to this Government. You will at once bring to the attention of the Government of Chile the facts, and will inquire whether there are any qualifying facts in possession of that Government or any explanation to be offered of the event that has very deeply pained the people of the United States, not only by reason of the resulting death of some of our sailors and the pitiless wounding of others, but even more as an apparent expression of unfriendliness towards this Government, which might put in peril the maintenance of amicable relations between the two countries. If the facts are as reported by Captain Schley, this Government cannot doubt that the Government of Chile will offer prompt and full reparation. You will furnish the foreign office the full paraphrase of this dispatch and report promptly to this Government.

A Bloody and Brutal Prize Fight.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 27.—Con Riordan of San Francisco and Billy Smith of Australia, heavy weights, battled at the California Club to-night for a purse of $1,200. Riordan, who was the favorite, was knocked down in the first round and also in the second. Smith forced the pace and, while Riordan countered effectively at times, the cleanest and hardest blows were Smith's, who landed repeatedly over Riordan's head. From the fifth to the sixteenth round Smith kept aggressive, driving the left for the jaw and planting the right over the head. From the sixteenth Smith gradually tired. Riordan cautiously assumed the aggressive. In the eighteenth Smith was bleeding at the nose, but in the twenty-second he brought a stream of blood from Riordan's eye with a terrific back-hand left. Smith pounded the injured optic till Riordan's cheek and chest were covered with blood. Smith repeated his new blow at every opportunity and in the twenty-fifth Riordan's face and chest were covered with gore and the men's gloves were slippery. Riordan went to the floor, remaining down eight seconds, and rose to be knocked down and was carried to his chair at the close of the round. In the twenty-sixth Smith smashed both hands into the injured eye. The scene was sickening as the game and bleeding Riordan struggled about the ring falling twice and rising only to receive Smith's powerful uppercuts full in the injured member, and the spectators cheered their approbation when Referee Cook stepped into the ring and stopped the fight, awarding it to Smith.

Marine Inquiry.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, October 27.—Lieutenant Cowles of the wrecked United States steamer Dispatch, read a statement before the Board of Inquiry to-day, showing that he had left everything in good shape before turning in for rest. He expected to be called for Winter Quarter or if anything was seen, but had set a safe course for the night. When the vessel struck he immediately went on deck and saw a red light which Lieutenant Mulligan and the quartermaster had thought was Winter Quarter. It proved to be Assateague.

Noel had changed the course because he was sure the light was the Winter Quarter ahead light. All the crew and officers corroborated the statement.

The Trial of the Chilean Agents.

Special to the Journal.

LOS ANGELES, October 27.—There were no new developments in the trial of the neutrality case against R. L. Trumbull and George A. Burt the Chilean agents. The entire time of Judge Ross in the United States District Court is being consumed in the argument by the special assistant counsel, A. W. Hutton and Alex Campbell, in opposition to the motion to instruct the jury to acquit the defendants. The latter will probably consume most of to-morrow's session. The impression seems to be general that even if the Court does not grant the motion the jury will acquit.

The organization was maintained, and last winter was incorporated as the New York Democratic Club and under its auspices a campaign meeting was held at Madison Square to-night. Ex-President Cleveland was introduced as Chairman and made a short address. Both Mr. Cleveland and Governor Hill, who also spoke, were roundly cheered.

A number of settlers have lost their homes and all their property. If the fire obtains a headway in the timber, great loss will follow. Only three houses were left standing in Ottumra City and a number of people were painfully burned. To-night the fire can be seen to the west. The growth of the grass is very rank and danger is apprehended.

Results of the Floods in Spain.

Special to the Journal.

MADRID, October 27.—Throughout Spain there is more or less evidence of the damage done by the floods and the severe nature of these inundations.

In many submerged districts acute distress prevails among the poorer classes of inhabitants. On all sides an immense amount of damage has been done. Many villages are entirely isolated from the surrounding towns and hamlets and there has been great loss everywhere in live stock and crops.

The first explosion, which is supposed to have been powder, demolished the roof and a part of the walls. Several other lighter explosions followed and then the fire completed the work of destruction. John Fink, Alfred Schaefer and Paul Pfannkuche were killed and several other employees severely injured. The pecuniary loss is slight.

Dr. Phillips of the Reno club, who was unable to play during the tournament, will contest the championship with Mr. Barnes at Carson in the near future. As our Dr. Phillips is a crack player we hope he may retrieve the fall fortunes of the Reno club in the matter of championship honors.

Captain Anson of the Chicago Baseball Club.

Adrian C. Anson of the Chicago Baseball Club, is one of the best known players in the country. He is certainly one of the ablest team managers. In no year has he brought together a finer set of ball players and showed greater generalship. No Captain has so enriched the coffers of any club as he has those of the Chicago. Captain Anson has an instinct for determining the chances a young player may have for success. His able lieutenant is the old Chicago favorite, Tom Burns, and next to him stands Fred Pfeffer, whose great play in the series of games at Brooklyn was a feat.

BURNS. RYAN. HUTCHINSON. PFEFFER.

ture of the contests there. Next comes left fielder Ryan, and then the old Yale College graduate, Hutchinson, whose swift and strategic pitching has done so much to place the Chicago club's team at the head of the competition in the present pennant race. It is a fact worthy of special note that the club has never had a team in the field that has worked together in such thorough harmony as the team Anson is proud in calling his colts. The fight for the pennant is between Boston and Chicago, but certainly the chances are in favor of Chicago.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circular and testimonials. Address, F. J. Free Water.

Parties in Reno having good wells or a place for one are throwing away money in paying water rates, when by a small investment plenty of pure water is at their command free of cost. One good well will supply water for several families, who by joining in the expense of erecting a windmill, tank, etc., can not only effect a saving in expenses, but be independent of a monopolizing water service. A visit to the Water Company's reservoir and ditch at times will convince the most skeptical that well water is the doctor's enemy, while surface water is the direct agent in bringing business to his office.

Constant pumping insures pure water from all good wells, hence the quality of well water cannot be judged properly from only occasional pumpings. Many unused wells would furnish plenty of pure, clear water if properly pumped.

Can you afford a pumping plant of your own? We will answer for you, Yes.

We are prepared to take contracts this winter to erect any sized wind-mill plant required, with proper tank and service connection, furnishing them on a monthly installment plan, warranting all work and taking proper care of all mills so erected.

Plans and specifications free upon application. anti-freezing pumps and protected pipes insure equally as good winter service as in summer. For further particulars call on

WHAT IS SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or foot; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can IT BE CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sores neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore last winter three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLISLE, Naughton, N. J. N. B. The Experimental Station.

The University Experiment Station is now in direct communication with the Signal Service Department. Daily bulletins are received to which are attached a map showing the air pressure, direction of wind and rainfall during the preceding twenty-four hours over a territory extending as far east as the Mississippi. The following signal stations on the outer line of the territory have full reports: Tabooch Island, Spokane Falls, Bismarck, Santa Fe, Los Angeles, Winnemucca and Carson City, including thirty other points. It also contains a summary of rainfall at each station for the preceding twenty-four hours, the total to date and the average normal fall. It gives the forecast for the next twenty-four hours and the station here is now provided with regulation flags which float daily from the dormitory building. This, in connection with various experimental stations, are doing excellent work in this line and our own University is ably equipped to furnish much data as to the climate of Nevada.

FAST TRAINS.

Four Days from Chicago to San Francisco.

It is reported that train-running time between Chicago and San Francisco will be shortened several hours November 1st, when a new time card on the Central Pacific will go into effect. The Burlington, Rio Grande and Central Pacific roads, will then have a through schedule by which closer connections will be made at Denver and Ogden. It is proposed to increase the speed of trains so that a passenger leaving Chicago Monday evening, for instance, will arrive in San Francisco Friday evening, instead of Saturday morning, as at present. These trains will have attached to them a through tourist car for Portland, Or., a through sleeper for San Francisco and a tourist sleeper for Los Angeles. It has not been determined exactly the number of hours this arrangement will reduce the time, but it is not less than eight or ten hours.

UP RIVER NOTES.

What is Being Done in the Ice Business.

FLORISTON, October 26, 1891.

ED. STATE JOURNAL:—As the outside world may desire to know what we are doing in this village and its vicinity, with your permission I will give them the following information.

The second ice house, an immense structure, of the National Ice Company is approaching completion. The San Francisco men who have the contract to shingle the building are taking advantage of this fine weather and are pushing the work.

The second dam now being built across the Truckee under the supervision of B. W. Parker is being built as rapidly as possible. When completed the ice company will have two ponds on the river and one up the canyon at Mason, Kidder & Co's saw mill. They expect to harvest about 18,000 tons of ice at one cutting in an average winter.

Ulysses Simonds, son of Superintendent Simonds of the National Ice Company, is the happiest man in the State. Usually he stands 6 feet 2 inches in his stockings, but to-day he is a foot taller. The cause is a big daughter, born this morning.

It is announced that Professor Black, the obliging and popular station agent here, will lecture next Saturday evening, subject: "We Must do What is Right."

SKIMMERHORN.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Notice.

All persons having claims against the Experiment Station or the State University must present them on or before Thursday, October 29, 1891.

G. H. TAYLOR, Secretary.

THE POWER OF LOVE.

The world is so changed since I knew her!
The sky is a tenderer blue,
The wood thrush sings sweeter and truer—
Yes, all the wide world is made new
The breezes that blow from the clover
And kiss all the flowers on the way
Are whispering over and over A name that is sweeter than they
Oh, love, thou hast fettered and bound me;
I never shall be heart free again,
Yet life flows like music around me,
And flowers are the links of my chain.
—James Buchanan in Detroit Free Press.

How Cloth Is Tested.
When the cloth arrives, it is slowly
passed over a double roller which measures the yards, and carefully examined for the purpose of discovering any defects in the manufacture. If there are any—broken threads or loosely woven spots—they are indicated by sewing a string in the margin, and the cutter is thus able to avoid the defective portion.
Then we cut off a small piece of the goods and put it outside on a windowsill, where, for ten days, it is exposed to the sun and the rain. If it fades, it is rejected. Then we test by chemicals to see if the dye stuff is indigo, which is the surest dye that can be made. If the color produced by the use of this test is a bright orange, it indicates that the dye
has an indigo basis.

After that a piece of the goods is put in a solution of caustic potash, which has the effect of eating up the animal fiber and leaving the vegetable fiber.
Some cloth manufacturers nowadays,
instead of making their goods of separate threads of cotton and of wool, take cotton and wool and mix them in such a way that no one, by merely feeling, can tell whether or not there is cotton in the piece. The only way we can know is by boiling a piece of the goods in this solution, which has the effect of eating up the wool and leaving the cotton.—
Interview in New York Epoch.

The Czar's Romance.
The following episode is said to have been related by the czar himself to intimate friends: His elder brother, who died at Nice, was, as is generally known, first betrothed to Princess Dagmar of Denmark. On his deathbed he left his brother, the present czar, a letter in which he begged him to take his place in the heart of the princess. The Grand Duke Alexander, however, was a very bashful lover, and had not the courage to carry out his dying brother's last wish,
till one day the Grand Duke Vladimir said to him, "If you will not fulfill the wish of our dead Nicholas, I shall propose for the hand of the princess myself."

A short time after the Grand Duke Alexander set off to Copenhagen, and one day, being alone with the Princess Dagmar, he handed her, tremblingly, the letter of his brother. When the princess had read it she blushed and said, "I also received a letter from Nicholas in which he begged me to become your wife." Alexander asked to be allowed to read the letter. The princess fetched it and together they read it. The sequel was a marriage.—Cor. London

Pay of Swiss Embroiderers.
The common old embroidering hand machine of 1827, with few improvements, is the one that is used today for the millions of fine embroideries that are sold to all quarters of the globe. There are, perhaps, 23,000 of them in use in eastern Switzerland, the number of the needles averaging about 250 to the machine, and the number of stitches not exceeding 2,000 to the needle daily. As embroiderers are paid on the stitch basis
only, and sometimes as low as 44 cen-
a hundred, they have very small earnings
left after paying their threaders id
other expenses. At the present time fifty cents, sometimes less, is a fair average of the daily earnings of a hard working embroiderer, who must toil a long day with head, hands and feet working his machine.—Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Youthful Connoisseur.
Bessie is an original little thing, and her comments are often very amusing.
Having been brought up in a family of bric-a-brac hunters, her knowledge of ceramics is quite remarkable for a child.
One day her mother noticed her gazing fixedly at her great-grandmother, a very old woman, whose kind old face was literally a network of fine wrinkles.
"What are you looking at, Bessie?" she asked the child. "I was only thinking,"
she answered promptly, "what a remarkably fine specimen of old 'crackle' granny was." This was much to the old lady's delight, she being a bit of a collector herself.—New York Tribune.

New England Piety.
There are communities of sturdy New England people where the general rule that religious services languish in the absence of a pastor does not hold. In North Warren weekly prayer meetings have been held for over seventy years uninterruptedly, and this without the help of a minister, except for an occasional lecture. At first the meetings were held at private dwellings, but for over thirty years the people have met at a schoolhouse.—Rockland (Me.) Tribune

The English opinion is that the farther south you go for oyster brood the poorer you get. A certain rock oyster from Scotland "has a firmness, richness and smack of the sea," according to an English authority, "that is greatly preferred by many to even the best Thames natives."

Charles H. Townsend, in his report
upon the pearl fisheries of California,
says that a pearl shell company of Lower California has an invested capital of $10,000. From 400 to 500 men are employed. The season begins in May in the vicinity of Cape St. Lucas.

An iron last, made by Spence, Boggs &

wide. The owner of this monstrous
